

60th Edition September 2024 All That's News

Coordinators' Corner

Our extended summer program allowed us to serve 74 children with weekly bags this summer, packing a total of 593 bags. We thank the food distribution sites that helped us to accomplish this: the Effingham, Wolfeboro, Ossipee and Tuftonboro Libraries, Pier 19 Country Store, The Tuftonboro General Store, Middleton Gospel Chapel, DiPrizio GMC Trucks, Inc., Doran Independent Insurance, The First Congregational Church of Wolfeboro, Ossipee Concerned Citizens, Ossipee Crossings Day Care, Ossipee Central School and Carpenter School.

We thank our volunteers who stepped up to add summertime to their End 68 Hours schedule: Carol Simpson, John and Jan Brooks, Sparky Grupp, Cindy Joseph, Peg Mongiello and family, Michelle Capone, Lauren Shealy, Jamie Keeley, Bonnie Blum, Dorie Sterndale, Eloise Schundler, Maria Coussens, Joan Magrath, Pat Jones, Denise McCall, Joan and Steve Scappichio, Donna Cullen, Eileen Leavitt, Jim Connor, Lucy and Skip Hancock, Pat Gifford, Terry Buzard, Joanne Moe, Maria Vadala, Peter Mann and his Brewster students.
